

AWARD WINNING
LAZARUS THEATRE COMPANY

www.lazarustheatrecompany.com

Lazarus Theatre Company are accepting applications for a Lighting Designer for our forthcoming production of Oscar Wilde's SALOMÉ which will play at The Greenwich Theatre this May.

The successful Designer will be working alongside our award-winning creative team. The role includes working closely and collaboratively with our director and creative team on creating a Lighting Design for this contemporary and physical based production of Oscar Wilde's iconic Salomé.

Designers with strong architectural and European aesthetic are strongly encouraged to apply.

Lazarus Theatre Company works as an ensemble, our scenographic process is key to exploring the world of the play with particular focus on a European and Brechtian aesthetic.

The fee is £400 all in.
Budget to be confirmed.

The successful candidate will want to work in a collaborative method and have an excitement about working on a large play with company and detail at its heart.
